

TRUE LOVE AT HONEYTOP

As their eyes met over the dough at Honeytop's factory in Dunstable, it was love at first sight for Production Supervisor Kulvinder Singh and NPD assistant Harmeet Kaur, and the couple are now engaged to be married.

As a surprise for Valentine's Day, Kulvinder, known as Mangie, was given permission to use Honeytop's state-of-the-art production lines to create heart-shaped naan bread, for his future wife, known as Sweetie.

The couple will be celebrating Valentine's Day with a home cooked meal and lots of naan bread to tear and share!
